Chapter 266, Section 120

Entry upon private property after being forbidden is Trespass: Penalties: Arrests: Tenants or occupants excepted.

Whoever, without right, enters premises in or upon the dwelling house, building, boats or improved or enclosed land, wharf or pier of another, after having been forbidden to do so by the person who has lawful control of said premises, either directly or by notice posted thereon, shall be punished by a fine of not more than one hundred dollars or by imprisonment for not more than thirty days, or both. A person who is found committing such trespass may be arrested by a sheriff, deputy sheriff, constable or police officer and kept in a convenient place for not more than twenty four hours, Sundays excepted until a complaint can be made against him for the offense, and he be taken upon a warrant issued upon such complaint.
